I've been using SSH for the past several years but this is my first time using it in the context of a script to automate a bunch of stuff. Here's what I'm trying to do: ssh -l tom user@remotehost -t 'bash script.sh' What I'm trying to do is login to remotehost, run a script, then get logged out and move on. I was hoping this 82157476af
